Communications Internship

Part-Time

Apply now!

The Elizabeth River Trail Foundation seeks an enthusiastic intern to assist with our communications, marketing, and community outreach. Interns are needed to keep our social media outreach innovative as well as grow our LinkedIn and Twitter following. Media interns will spend some time with the ERT staff in the office, work from home, as well as capture moments on the Elizabeth River Trail and at events. Tasks include developing a social media content schedule, identifying opportunities to build brand awareness, creating engaging content, and presenting ideas for our monthly e-newsletter.

This internship is perfect for college students majoring in marketing, design, communications, and public relations. Riding to events is encouraged when possible, and access to an automobile is a bonus. Some heavy lifting is required, but we promise it'll be fun. Meet lots of new people in Norfolk and share your love for the trail while learning the basics of a non-profit organization. Most weeks will be 10-15 hours. Events support is primarily on weeknights and weekends.

- Be available to attend and coordinate efforts on Celebrate Trails Day!
- Assist full-time staff with day-to-day operations and event planning.
- Assist with community outreach efforts in bringing awareness to the trail.
- Conduct trail surveys.
- Assist with the distribution of promotional materials in the community.
- Manage event registrations and social media platforms.
- Assist with the set-up and breakdown of events.
- Assist other community partners with projects as needed.
- Intern period: flexible
